

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

DEPARTMENT OF TAMIL

PO1: Proficiency in Tamil Language

- Students will attain a high level of proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and understanding the Tamil language, demonstrating a deep understanding of its grammar, syntax, and vocabulary.

PO2: Literary and Cultural Analysis

- Students will excel in the critical analysis and interpretation of Tamil literature and culture, with the ability to explore themes, genres, and historical context within the Tamil literary tradition.

PO3: Preservation and Promotion of Tamil Heritage

- Students will be committed to the preservation and promotion of Tamil language, culture, and heritage, actively engaging in activities that contribute to the broader Tamil community.

PO4: Interdisciplinary Engagement

- Students will recognize and explore connections between Tamil language and literature and other fields of study, fostering interdisciplinary perspectives that connect Tamil culture to broader academic contexts.

PO5: Research and Scholarship in Tamil Studies

- Students will acquire advanced research skills and demonstrate the ability to conduct in-depth research on Tamil language, literature, and culture, making significant contributions to the field.

PO6: Tamil Linguistics

- Students specializing in linguistics will develop a profound understanding of Tamil linguistics, including phonetics, phonology, morphology, and syntax, and their application to language preservation and development.

PO7: Digital Media and Tamil Communication

- Students will be proficient in the use of digital media and technology for the promotion and communication of Tamil language, literature, and culture.

PO8: Ethical and Professional Conduct

- Students will adhere to the highest ethical standards in their academic work and professional activities, respecting cultural sensitivity and intellectual property rights within the field of Tamil studies.

PO9: Tamil Teaching and Pedagogy

- Students interested in teaching Tamil will develop effective pedagogical approaches, preparing them for careers as Tamil language educators and instructional leaders.

PO10: Promotion of Tamil Literature and Translation

- Students focusing on Tamil literature and translation will acquire skills in translating Tamil works into other languages and promoting Tamil literature on a global scale.

PO11: Historical Context and Tamil Literature

- Students will demonstrate a deep understanding of the historical and cultural contexts in which Tamil literature has evolved, tracing the development of Tamil literary traditions across different time periods.

PO12: Classical and Modern Tamil Literature

- Students will be well-versed in both classical and modern Tamil literature, allowing them to appreciate and analyze works from different literary periods and styles.

PO13: Tamil Poetry and Prosody

- Students will have expertise in Tamil poetry and prosody, including the ability to analyze and appreciate the intricate rhyme schemes, meters, and poetic forms found in Tamil poetry.

PO14: Comparative Literature

- Students will explore and compare Tamil literature with other world literatures, gaining a broader perspective and enriching their understanding of literary traditions.

PO15: Folk Literature and Oral Traditions

- Students will engage with folk literature and oral traditions in Tamil culture, preserving and interpreting stories, myths, and folklore that have been passed down through generations.

PO16: Translation and Tamil Literature

- Students will develop skills in translating Tamil literary works into other languages and vice versa, contributing to the global dissemination of Tamil literature.

PO17: Research and Scholarly Writing

- Students will excel in research and scholarly writing, producing high-quality research papers and academic publications in the field of Tamil literature.

PO18: Literary Criticism and Theoretical Frameworks

- Students will be proficient in literary criticism and various theoretical frameworks, enabling them to critically analyze and interpret Tamil literary texts.

PO19: Contemporary Tamil Literature and Authors

- Students will stay up-to-date with contemporary Tamil literature and be familiar with the works of modern Tamil authors, reflecting the evolving nature of Tamil literary expression.

PO20: Promotion of Tamil Literary Heritage

- Students will actively participate in activities and initiatives that promote and preserve the rich literary heritage of Tamil, including organizing literary events, publishing literary journals, and fostering a love for Tamil literature in the community.